Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading: Proverbs 8: 1-4, 22-31 ^{NIV}

The writer likens 'Wisdom' to a person who speaks.

Does not wisdom call out? Does not understanding raise her voice?

² At the highest point along the way, where the paths meet, she takes her stand;

³ beside the gate leading into the city, at the entrance, she cries aloud:

⁴ "To you, O people, I call out; I raise my voice to all mankind.

²² "The Lord brought me forth as the first of his works, before his deeds of old;

²³ I was formed long ages ago, at the very beginning, when the world came to be.

²⁴ When there were no watery depths, I was given birth, when there were no springs overflowing with water;

²⁵ before the mountains were settled in place, before the hills, I was given birth,

²⁶ before he made the world or its fields or any of the dust of the earth.

²⁷ I was there when he set the heavens in place, when he marked out the horizon on the face of the deep,

²⁸ when he established the clouds above and fixed securely the fountains of the deep,

²⁹ when he gave the sea its boundary so the waters would not overstep his command, and when he marked out the foundations of the earth.

³⁰ Then I was constantly at his side. I was filled with delight day after day, rejoicing always in his presence,
³¹ rejoicing in his whole world and delighting in mankind.

Second Reading: Romans 5: 1-5 ^{NIV}

Paul teaches us of our privileges when we have been put right with God through trusting Jesus.

Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ² through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we boast in the hope of the glory of God. ³ Not only so, but we also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; ⁴ perseverance, character; and character, hope. ⁵ And hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us.

Gospel: John 16: 12-15 ^{NIV}

Jesus promises that He, the Holy Spirit and God the Father will all teach us.

"I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear. ¹³ But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all the truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. ¹⁴ He will glorify me because it is from me that he will receive what he will make known to you. ¹⁵ All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will receive from me what he will make known to you."

Post Communion

Almighty and eternal God, you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and live and reign in the perfect unity of love: hold us firm in this faith, that we may know you in all your ways and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory, who are three Persons yet one God, now and for ever. Amen.

WORK WEEK AT PINHOE

A reminder that Work Week takes place between 1 and 5 July, starting at 6pm. Please put the dates in your diary and maybe set aside an evening or two to help if you can.

Please see the posters in our churches for the two most local events early next month [Newton Abbot; Honiton], with evenings focusing on children's work and vocations, respectively.
